Schools Open Sept. 9

Nearly 3000 youngsters will attend public schools here this year. Supt. Edward I. Erickson estimated this week that 2980 youngsters will troop into elementary and secondary classrooms Sept. 9. The beginning of school was put off until the later date this year, after last year's experience at West School when a late starting time proved valuable.

*(Author's Name Below)

Not so long ago there were fewer old folks because the average person who reached fifty was considered lucky. Now with an average life expectancy of about 70 years, there are many more people who are old in years but young in health.

There are two wise rules that will make your added years healthier. Always visit your physician at the first sign of any illness, and regularly take one of the geriatric vitamins that will supply the extra energy needed. For just a few cents per day you can get from us vitamins made by the dependable pharmaceutical firms.

Jr. Red Cross Training Center Held This Week

Something new has been added to Main st., Andover!

This week 160 outstanding teenagers from eight different states, attending the Junior Red Cross Leadership Training Center at Phillips Academy, are milling about the campus, and, in-between, a very busy schedule of meetings, are catching a sight of Andover's business section.

Opening last Sunday, Aug. 25 and continuing through Sunday, Sept. 1, these boy and girl delegates from American Red Cross chapters are attending "the Center", which is one of the 10 sponsored by the American Red Cross this summer. The purpose of the centers is to mold today's youth into the community leaders of tomorrow — and from the general face of the wonderful group

Selectmen, Finance Committee Approve BPW Article; Other Articles Will Be Considered

Recent Accident Victims Do Well

All of the seriously injured local people, victims of auto collisions during this month, are reported recovering and now out of danger.

Young Billy Machen, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Machen of Dascomb rd., who suffered a fractured skull and lay unconscious at Lawrence General Hospital for over a week as a result of having been in collision with a pick-up truck while riding his bike on Osgood st., is recuperating at home. Mrs. Machen reports that Billy is progressing slowly but is responding to treat-

Closed Meeting Discussed Water

A secret meeting to discuss the special town meeting, tying in the test wells and, apparently, to debate the Greenwood rd. water extension was held Monday by the BPW, joined by the Selectmen.

Although no notice of the meeting had been given the newspapers, it was learned early Monday afternoon that the two boards, with Consulting Engineer Joseph Lawlor, would meet.

However, BPW Chairman Allen Flye told a reporter the meeting was closed when he asked to be admitted. The Selectmen were asked if they agreed to closing

1538 Home Permits Issued In Decade

Further dramatic proof of Andover's growth since the war has been furnished by the State Department of Commerce.

In statistics released this month, that department has listed the number of new homes for which permits were issued during each of the years between 1946 and 1956.

In that 10-year period, Andover

A special town meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 16, at 8 p.m.

The Selectmen called the special session primarily at the request of the Board of Public Works. But several other articles may be included in the warrant.

A deadline of 4:30 tomorrow afternoon has been set for filing them with the Selectmen.

Water is the biggest question to be decided at the meeting, with the BPW preparing an article calling for the appropriation of more than a quarter million dollars to permanently tie in two test wells and construct a mile and a quarter of water main on Porter rd.

Consulting Engineers Camp, Dresser and McKee have estimated the cost of this project at $255,000 but necessary payments for land takings are not included.

Francis Robidoux In Boston Hospital

The condition of 11-year-old Francis Robidoux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Robidoux of River rd., who narrowly escaped electrocution early Monday night when he climbed a tree near his home and grasped a wire, was reported as grave.

The boy, who had been rushed to Lawrence General Hospital, was found to be suffering from a severe skull fracture and blood clots on the brain, suffered when he dropped 20 feet to the roadway. He also had burns about the hands and legs. His name was placed on the danger list Tuesday morning and in the afternoon he was re-

Special Gifts Division Starts

Andover's special gifts division of the United Fund expects to complete its work by Sept. 19.

Some 200 prospects will have been solicited by that time, according to William Rhoads, division chairman.

At a meeting Aug. 22 in the town hall, the special gifts solicitors were given information concerning this year's drive and received

Big Drainage Problem From New Parking Lot

The town may be facing a drainage problem in Shawsheen, resulting from municipal insistence that the Raytheon Manufacturing Co. provide parking lots for its employees.

The Board of Public Works was faced Monday night with making a decision on allowing the firm to drain a new parking lot into the town storm drain on Haverhill st. If the present drain is 15 inches in diameter, the Board will allow Raytheon's request. But if it is smaller than that, members felt that any tie-in simply will mean badly over-burdening the system.

The new lot includes 51,000 square feet of area at the junction of York and Haverhill streets — and Raytheon has flatly said it must tie into the present drainage system or let the water run off onto the street. Donald Bassett, superintendent of the water and sewage department under which drainage falls, said a representative of Raytheon explained that the town is forcing his company to build the parking facilities. Some solution has to be found for draining the area, the representative is quoted as stating, because of the town's insistence that parking be provided.

BPW members agreed that the town has the responsibility for providing drainage under these circumstances. But Chairman Allen Flye also stated that there is no money available now for a new drain that will be ample to carry any run-off caused by a heavy rain.

Bassett suggested that the water be allowed to run off onto the street until it can be determined just how the present system will be affected and what changes will be needed. Members decided that a 15-inch storm drain, if one that large exists under Haverhill st., might handle the drainage water. Raytheon officials had said they believe a 10-inch drain runs under the street.

The Selectmen have been working with Raytheon officials in the planning for parking areas so that employees' cars will not be left all day on Shawsheen streets. Residents have complained repeatedly about the practice and two-hour parking has been placed in effect on many of the streets.

Receive Bids On Town Garage

Bids on the construction of an addition to the town garage on Lewis st. were received by the Board of Public Works Monday night.

Taken under consideration were three proposals, all less than the $25,000 appropriation voted last March at town meeting.

Suburban Household Enterprises

bid $23,900. This firm has done the repair and remodeling work in the town hall.

The Charles Construction Co. bid $24,225 and the highest of the three was the L. C. Cyr Co., at $25,500.

A fourth potential bidder called the Board just before the 8 p.m. deadline for filing bids and asked for an extension of 15 minutes. This was later denied, after other bidders pointed out that the specifications called for all bids to be in the office by 8 p.m.

Discuss Betterment Assessment On Hylands Sewer Project

An assessment of $8.65 per front foot for the proposed Shaw-sheen Hylands sewer will be "seriously considered" by the Board of Public Works.

Residents of the area, attending the Board's meeting Monday night, had to be content with the Board's promise to consider the amount.

Some 40 persons, who were represented at the meeting by Atty. Maurice Close and William Schmidt, would be serviced by the sewer. But the cost of the entire line will probably reach $115,000, according to consulting engineers.

Thus, the residents had sought BPW assurance that a much larger assessment would not be levied against them if the project goes through.

An article will be inserted in the warrant for the special town meeting asking the town to raise nearly $116,000 for the project. Because a trunk line, starting at 18 inches in diameter and narrowing to 15 inches, must be run from No. Main st. to reach the area, some residents had feared that the full cost might be assessed against them. If that happened, the assessment might be closer to $15 a foot, they said, or might even reach $3000 apiece.

The matter of betterment assessments also has been covered in the consulting engineer's report. The Hylands residents suggested that a formula explained in the report be used to determine the proper assessment.

The report listed it at $8.65. This formula is based on the town's legal responsibility to pay for one-quarter of the cost of sewers and the number of feet of assessable frontage compared to the number of feet of sewer constructed.

The engineers have suggested that all sewer construction in town should be included in assessments, rather than merely the cost of lateral lines.

When the Board agreed to seriously weigh the engineer's recommendations on assessments, the residents agreed to word their article so that the amount of the assessment may be determined later.

Members of the Board said a policy probably will be decided upon after the engineers complete a town-wide sewer report.

Machinery Fund Value Is $4571

A machinery fund valued at $4571.07 may be used by the Board of Public Works for vehicle maintenance or purchase of new equipment.

The Board, which voted recently to repair the town-owned bulldozer, had sought to pay the $1000 repair bill from this fund.

But Town Accountant George Napier explained that a vote of town meeting is required to spend any of the fund. It has come back to the town from the state, he told the TOWNSMAN, from unexpended Chapter 90 funds. However, nothing has been added to it for some years, he said.

The BPW voted Monday night to pay for the equipment repairs from funds in the budget.

Award Insurance To Local Agents

A joint contract for furnishing casualty insurance for school students has been awarded to two local agencies.

Submitting identical proposals for coverage of all students were the Smart & Flagg Inc. agency and the Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. agency. Both also bid identically on the separate policy for varsity football and that policy was awarded jointly, as well.

The firms bid $1.25 per pupil on the casualty insurance, using the Craftsman Insurance Co. Their football coverage comes to about $17.50 per player or a total of approximately $1000. Under the student coverage, the maximum benefit is $2500, while football coverage is limited to $1000 benefit.

James Doherty also bid on the insurance, submitting a per-pupil figure of $1.50 and $600 for football.

While his football coverage premium was lower, Committee members explained that the savings on the lower per-pupil premium would more than compensate for paying extra for football coverage. Parents pay the per-pupil premium on a voluntary basis while the School Department pays for the football coverage.

Doherty was last year's successful bidder. And with his bid this year, he submitted a statement of experience with the insurance that showed greater payments under both policies than was paid in premiums.

Parents, together, paid $2987.50 in premiums and the company paid out $3234 in claims.

In football, the premium was $505 but $2499 was paid for injuries.

Doherty's letter said the bad experience factor resulted in higher premiums this year.

It was also explained, during the meeting, that the football and individual insurance could not be separated and awarded to different agencies because the companies would not accept it that way.

Irishman Wants Help In Finding Relatives, Friends Or Just Anyone

Edward Minogue has a problem. In a letter to the Andover Selectmen, addressed actually to "The Mayor of Andover", Minogue asked for help in locating relatives in this area.

A resident of County Mayo, Ireland, Minogue asked the mayor to get his plea into the local papers. It reads:

"I am seeking cousins in the United States and would be ever so grateful to you if you would hand this note to the local newspaper editor in the hope that he will publish my query: Are there any Minogue or Manogue folks in your locality? Also, Fitzgeralds, from whom I am also anxious to hear.

"As a matter of fact, I would appreciate hearing from anybody interested in Ireland."

The address: James st., Claremorris, County Mayo, Ireland.

At The Library

First Days At School

A momentous occasion for the four, five and six-year olds as they start off to kindergarten or first grade!

Most boys and girls welcome this new experience even though it means leaving the security of home for the first time for the larger world outside. But there are many ways of making the step a happier and more profitable one which child experts recognize and which the Memorial Hall Library is pleased to offer to its adult readers.

Some of the books, pamphlets and magazines suggested as helpful as Sept. 9 approaches are: "The Fives and Sixes Go To School" by Sheehy, a helpful guide written out of long experience and meant not only for teachers but for parents anxious to have the first days of school go as auspiciously as possible.

Another book entitled "Dear Parents", written by a school principal is recommended, particularly for the chapter on "Preparing for His First Step Into the World". Hubbard's "Your Child At School" considers the first days and months at school and discusses problems of adjustment and development. "How to Help

Your Child In School" by Mary and Lawrence Frank covers a child's school years from nursery-school age up to junior high. School Objectives

A knowledge of school objectives helps parents to know what to expect of their children's school. Helpful in this area is "Elementary School Objectives" by Kearney which attempts to answer such questions as "what should children in the elementary grades learn, remember, understand?"; "what everyday problems should they be equipped to solve?"

Most parents are eager to participate in parent groups like the PTA. "Your Part In Your Child's Education" by Bess Lane offers suggestions for effective cooperation between parents and the school. Two other books which do much the same things are Dorothy Baruch's "Parents and Children Go To School" and James Hynes' "Effective Home-School Relations".

The Nursery School Child

The outside world must seem a very complicated place to small children venturing into it for the first time. A book which deals with this subject is "Your Child Meets the World Outside" by Elizabeth Boettiger, stressing the importance of developing a sense of belonging and security so that the child will grow to accept easily people who differ from himself.

"Living in the Kindergarten" by Clarice Wills and "Nursery School" by Katherine Read are excellent background reading for an understanding of what nursery school and kindergarten seek to accomplish.

"Art Education in the Kindergarten" indicates that art education is an indispensable aid to learning and that the art of children even as young as these lies within the tradition of man's artistic experience.

Some Good First Books

"Bequest of Wings" by Annis Duff; "Rosa Too-Little" by Felt; "Mike's House" by Julia Sauer; "Andy and the Lion" by James Daugherty and Carolyn Hayward's "Betsy" books.

Mr. and Mrs. William Turner and family have returned to their home on High Plain rd. after spending a week at North Hampton Beach, N. H.

SPECIAL MEETING SEPTEMBER 16

In addition to the water article, the Selectmen have promised to ask adoption of a by-law controlling gravel pits.

And residents of Shawsheen Hylands have told the Board of Public Works they will petition for a sewer to service their area.

That project has been estimated at $115,750 by the engineers. Involved is the construction of a trunk line that eventually could serve areas of West Andover. The residents indicated they will ask that the cost be assessed proportionately against those having direct or indirect benefit, in a manner and amount to be determined by the Board of Public Works.

BPW Article OK'd

Whether other articles are filed before the Friday deadline is a matter of conjecture. Planning Board Chairman Lee Noyes said it is extremely doubtful whether any zoning articles are filed. Some have been prepared, he explained, but zoning changes require a hearing and a 10-day notice of a hearing.

Noyes indicated that too many time consuming factors would be involved in getting the articles ready by tomorrow at 4:30.

It is also recalled that the annual town meeting in March adopted a by-law stating that any article asking for money must be approved for insertion in a special town meeting warrant by the Finance Committee and Selectmen.

The FinCom and Selectmen have both approved the BPW's article but, late Tuesday, had not yet taken action on the Shawsheen Hylands petition.

At the BPW meeting Monday night, Chairman Allen Flye said no other BPW articles are being considered for this special session. There had been some discussion about asking for more money to carry out, now that two wells have been found, added exploration. Joseph Lawlor of the engineering firm has explained that another well or two will be driven and he had said more money might be needed to adequately test them.

Water Program

The two test wells to be considered under the article are producing a million gallons daily under test conditions. Engineers have explained that there is little likelihood that anything will happen to reduce that volume or affect the fine quality — but have also said that there never can be a complete guarantee against future difficulties.

The wells, one on the Abbott property off Andover st. and the other in the Essex Sand and Gravel pit in Ballardvale, have been tested during the drought period. The Abbott well was pumped directly into the water system while the Ballardvale well has been tested without connection to existing mains.

The 16-inch carrying main included in the special article will run all the way to So. Main st. along Porter rd. Estimated to cost about $111,000, the main will furnish added strength when the water is pumped into the system at a pressure great enough to overcome the pressure of the water already running in the main. And added capacity will become available for future additions to the water supply.

Haven't Determined Cost

The specific amount to be requested has not been decided, according to Chairman Flye. He explained that a realistic estimate of land taking costs must be determined.

All the land in a radius of 400 feet from each well must be secured by the town, as a result of state requirements. There could be some small change in this requirement, it has been explained, depending on how thickly settled the areas are. The state Department of Public Health sets up the requirements to protect a water source from pollution.

BPW members have roughly estimated that some 20 acres of land may be required to meet this requirement, but there has been no estimate of land damages involved. The special article will merely ask for permission to take the land and a sum of money will be allowed under the article to meet this expense.

BUILDING BOOM SHOWN BY FIGURES

issued permits for 1538 new homes. This figure, the state report indicated, does not include apartments created by remodeling.

In the last five years, the increase in new homes has been readily noticeable. The report shows 119 issued in 1952; 152 in 1953; 196 in 1954; 219 in 1955 and 229 in 1956.

Prior to that time, the number of permits issued had shown a steady growth from 1946 through 1949; then it decreased for three years.

The report lists them this way: 1946, 56 permits; 1947, 76; 1948, 112; 1949, 135; 1950, 130 permits; 1951, 124 permits; 1952, 119.

And this year, Building Inspector Ralph W. Coleman suggests that the year-end total may be about on a par with the 1956 figure.

In a brief comparison with other communities in Greater Lawrence, Methuen issued 1773 permits in the 10 years covered by the report; Lawrence issued 1566 and No. Andover is credited with 430, but that figure represents only the years 1950 through 1956.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 9

Teachers, however, will not have the extra vacation days. They will report next Wednesday, starting to get their rooms in order for the following Monday's first day rush.

Among the teachers will be 20 who are new to the system. Eight are replacements for teachers leaving the system in June, while 12 are newly engaged to meet increased enrollments.

Registrations Next Week

Before school officially opens, however, children who are new to the school system may register at the school in their district. Responsible officials will be available for that purpose during the mornings of next week, Erickson said.

At Central School, registrations for that school, Stowe and Jackson Schools will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week from 9:30 to 11:30.

If there is any question about kindergarten youngsters, parents have been asked to call Miss Catherine Barrett, school principal, to determine proper morning or afternoon assignments.

The estimated breakdown of students in each school shows: High School, 444; Junior High School, 685; Bradley, 151; Central, 986; Shawsheen, 375 and West, 339.

Will Reach 3000

When the School Committee discussed the opening of schools with the superintendent last week it was indicated that at least 20 youngsters will be coming into the system during the course of the school year. When that happens, the town will have reached 3000 public school students.

During that meeting, Erickson presented the annual school calendar, which was approved by the Committee. It read:

Sept. 9, opening;
Nov. 27, close at noon for remainder of week, Thanksgiving;
Dec. 20, close for Christmas vacation;
Jan. 2, school reopens;
Feb. 21, close for winter vacation;
March 3, school reopens;
April 25, close for spring vacation;
May 5, school reopens;
June 25, close for summer.
Listed under days off for the schools are Wednesday, Oct. 9, Essex County Teacher's Association meeting;
Monday, Nov. 11, Veterans' Day;
Friday, April 4, Good Friday;
Thursday, May 30, Memorial Day.

High School Announces Home Room Assignments

The tedious and exacting task of assigning homerooms to the three high school grades entering Andover's new high school Sept. 1st has at last been accomplished.

Barring some last minute changes which new, unexpected enrollees might make necessary, the following assignments, just released by Headmaster Lindsay J. March, should stand pretty much as presently scheduled:

Sophomores: room two, V. Abbot and including B. Carney; room

6, J. Catania to A. Fee; room 11, B. Ferris to S. Hartford; room 12, M. Harty to P. Leveroni; room 13, J. Lord to S. Mulvey; room 14, D. Murphy to C. Smyth; room 21, D. Sorrie to L. Zecchini.

Juniors: room four, P. Adams to M. Freeman; room 10, F. Froburg to E. Lynch; room 20, J. Lynch to G. Poore; room 22, M. Porter to T. Zubrinski.

Seniors: room seven, G. Adyns to C. Comeau; room eight, B. Curran to A. Kryzynski; room 18, J. Laurenza to J. Richardson; room 24, C. Ringland to J. Young.

$44,700 OK'd By Boards For Water Improvement

A 12-inch water main on Greenwood rd., costing $44,735.04, has been approved by the Selectmen and Finance Committee.

The Board of Public Works secured permission from both groups before undertaking the construction. The Greenwood rd. pipe will run from the 12-inch main on Lowell st. to a hydrant near High Plain st., according to the BPW plan.

Some 4320 feet of pipe will go into the project, with a cost of $4.56 a foot for construction. A divert will cost $300 and contingencies are fixed at 20 percent of the estimated cost of these items. Thus, the Board has figured its cost at $37,279.20 and has tied 20 percent to that figure to cover unexpected complications.

Will Flush Sewer Before Paying Bill

The Board of Public Works will flush out the new Andover st. sewer before releasing any more money to the contractor.

The town now holds 10 percent of the contract, or about $1600, it is understood. Members decided that the new main should be flushed out completely as a test before the final payment is made. George Kelly of Lowell was the contractor.

ACCEPTS CIRCULATION MANAGER POSITION

James McGrath, son of V. Florence McGrath of Florence, has accepted a position as circulation manager of the N. H. Telegraph. He states new duties to be:

Can Rate Be Held Down?

Last week's School Committee meeting produced some remarkable statistics on school insurance.

In the last school year, parents paid $2987.50 to protect their youngsters during school hours. Each child was charged $1.25 for the year. Included in the coverage, beyond the usual benefits for individuals, were all sports except football.

That sport alone, under a separate policy, cost the taxpayers $505 in premiums.

But here's the shocker:

Football cost the insurance company $2499 — nearly $2000 more than was paid in premiums.

And the individual insurance, for which parents paid $2987.50, cost the company $3234.

Thus, in both cases, the benefits paid out to youngsters injured in some way during the school year far exceeded the premiums.

We wonder if it is possible for all sports to be covered under a separate policy — thus reducing the risk under the individual coverage. With the risk reduced, it seems that the rate per child (this year, as last, $1.25) might at least remain constant if not be lowered. Certainly, if the insurance company has such a poor year again in 1957, paying out more than was received, the rate next year can be expected to go up considerably.

As a matter of fact, to prove that idea, we noted that last year's agent bid on the individual coverage again this year but increased the premium to $1.50 per student — a true reflection of the bad experience of 1956.

Perhaps someone can answer the question we have posed — is there any way to reduce the cost per student or hold it fairly constant, by taking all sports out of the individual category and making them, as is football, the subject of specific policies which might be paid by the school department?

Most Glaring Examples

Last week we commented about public officials doing business with the town.

And now it seems that some officials, named in the editorial, feel that others should have been named along with them.

"Why pick on the Board of Public Works?", they ask.

We wouldn't want the Board of Public Works members to feel lonesome — but we also wish to point out that theirs are the glaring examples of the conflict between public and private interests. Other town officials probably are also involved in similar conflicts, for which there is no answer, because there is no law requiring an official to abstain from voting on matters where he or she has a private interest. And there is no law that can force other citizens from implying that it is in their best interest to do business with a public official.

Other towns and cities have such laws. Shouldn't we?

Miss Priscilla Reynolds, returning last week from a summer spent abroad as Andover's Junior Red Cross representative to the international meetings in Europe, is attending some of the interesting assemblies and discussion groups. Miss Katherine Nelligan and Miss Linda Johanson are also attending the full week's sessions as Andover's delegates.

The varied program is designed to give the delegates a broader understanding of the nature and scope of the Red Cross on a local, national and international level and also to teach new ways to serve their communities through active participation in Junior Red Cross programs.

The subjects include "The Volunteer in the Red Cross", "Publicity Telling the Red Cross Story", "Services to the Armed Forces and Veterans", "Disaster and Civil Defense" and "Area and National Councils, National Convention".

In addition to learning about the 10 major service programs of the Red Cross, the delegates will participate in demonstrations on water safety, first aid and home nursing. They will enter into group discussions on such subjects as the Red Cross charter obligation to men of the armed forces and the role of Red Cross in disaster and community services.

A talent show, a banquet and the publication of a center newspaper will be special features of a number of extra-curricular activities planned by the delegates.

GOURMET "STEALS"

BY
BETTY BLAISDELL

There is something so straightforward and honest about the smell of a beef stew! Come the first cool day in August, summer dainties and mood meals just naturally give way to the cooking-in-earnest pot-au-feu.

"The kettle" is the only reference my grandmother would make to her own gigantic stew pot from which emerged (I was to learn in due time) the very basis of all of her wonderful soups, stews, consommés and sauces. I would that I could somewhere approach the piquant flavors and aromas of that magic pot! I'd see from many times taste-test the rich broth with the same wooden spoon that she used to stir and skim it with, then as if she knew the very herb it lacked, she'd pluck at a branch of marjoram, summer savory or basil, hanging from the old cross beams holding up the ceiling and crush it over the simmering kettle.

Thank goodness, I KNOW what went into the kettle . . . or approximately. Bones . . . veal or mutton with the rump meat cut away, a peck, a couple of big yellow onions and carrots, a stalk of celery with all of the green leaves, heart of a cabbage, some peppercorns, salt and herbs. Parsley by all means. I would throw in other things such as mushroom stems, tomato skins and even cucumber peelings. When she'd add about four quarts of cold water, bring to a boil, skim, skim and skim.

My pot-au-feu is the same idea with variations, depending on what I have on hand. I usually add some green pepper, broccoli stems and for herbs I call on my favorite choice Island varieties.

BEEF OR BOEUF

It is still stew and I achieve this homey dish in something of a roundabout way—a method I have had to follow simply because my family won't tolerate a lot of unidentifiable vegetables turning up in the broth. So after about four hours of simmering and bringing the liquid down to two quarts or less, I remove from the stove and strain everything.

The broth should be amber in color and by adding several fresh tomatoes it will have even a darker color. Store this on the back of the stove, get out an iron Dutch oven and sear in hot fat about two lbs. of good top of the round, cut in thick cubes which have been thoroughly dusted in seasoned flour. Brown on all sides, sprinkle over the remaining flour and then add gradually a quantity of the warm broth. Cover tightly and simmer gently for 30 minutes or until meat is almost done. Add small carrots, potatoes and tiny onions and cook for another 30 minutes or until vegetables are done.

very well known in Ballardvale and West Parish and much in demand. If it's too early for all of the ingredients, it won't be in a week or two.

5 lbs. green tomatoes
5 lbs. red tomatoes
4 sweet red peppers, seeds in 4 hot red peppers, seeds out
4 med. onions

Grind all this, add one cup salt and let stand overnight. Next day drain well and add:

1 qt. cider vinegar
2 lbs. sugar
1 tsp. ground cloves
1 tsp. cinnamon

Cook slowly one-half to three-quarters of an hour. Put in jars and seal.

APPLE OATMEAL BARS

(Mrs. Roland Weeks)

Now that the good Gravenstein apples are appearing once again we can think about apple pies, Brown Bettys and Pan Dowdys. Mrs. Weeks' apple dessert made a tremendous hit the several times she prepared it for D.A.R. and other luncheons.

1 1/2 scant cups flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp Baking Soda
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/4 lb. butter
1 cup rolled oats
2 lbs. apples
2 Tbl. butter
1/2 cup granulated sugar

Sift the first three ingredients together and combine with the brown sugar. Cut the 1/4 lb. butter into mixture and add the oats. This comprises the crumb mixture, half of which is spread into a good sized baking pan, square or oblong. Peel and quarter the apples, laying these on top of the crumbs, dot with white sugar and 2 Tbl. butter, and cover with the remaining half of crumbs. Bake in a 350 oven for about 30 min. Cut in squares and serve with tart lemon sauce.

WEED'N THE SEASON'N

Sounds senseless but it's not! Food seasonings lose their oomph very quickly and should be included in the overall kitchen clean-up at least twice a year — so the experts say! And speaking of seasonings, there are so many exciting new ones on the market that can be added after the shelves are washed. Have you tried "Charcrust" for instance? This has been developed to give a delicious hickory smoked flavor to meats broiled in the oven and a nice brown look, too.

Stickney has a good apple pie spice, combining a nice blend of cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and allspice; and for those of us who dislike the business of crushing a clove of garlic whenever a recipe calls for it, there are a variety of packaged forms including garlic juice, garlic spread for bread, garlic flakes and salt.

ROBIDOUX BOY IN BOSTON HOSPITAL

moved to Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston, for an emergency operation which was performed at 2 a.m. Wednesday.

The Robidoux's, returning to Andover after having been up all night before and during the operation, reported to the TOWNSMAN that their son has, they believed, a chance for recovery. The child had been removed to Boston late Tuesday afternoon in the Andover Fire Department ambulance. Mrs. Irene Kattar, a hospital supervisor, was in attendance.

Young Francis and his 7-year-old brother, Robert, had been playing with the older boy's chum, David Becotte, 11, also of River rd. shortly after 7:30 p.m. Climbing a tree not 500 yards from his house, Francis grasped an overhead wire with both hands which his little brother, Bobbie, said "burst into fire". Contact with the wire was said to have knocked the boy unconscious temporarily, causing him to topple against a limb which gave way, plunging the child to the road.

Young Becotte, also on the up-climb, scrambled down and ran to a residence nearby for help. Both police and fire authorities were summoned.

Police Sergeant Robert V. Deyermund, who received the call for aid, notified Lawrence Electric Co. representatives of the accident and Reginald Griffin was dispatched to launch an investigation. The Fire Department ambulance rushed Robidoux to the Hospital.

John H. Grecoe Jr., 8 Florence st., who suffered multiple injuries in an auto collision on Route 128 in Burlington early Aug. 8, has been released from Woburn Hospital for further recuperation at his home. His condition, while far from well, is encouragingly improved.

Mr. Grecoe, the father of two daughters, Karen and Kim, was presented with his third daughter in Lawrence General Hospital Tuesday morning.

Miss Laurie Smith, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith, 20 Johnson rd., who sustained severe fractures of the jaw, right leg and hip, returned home from Lawrence General Hospital this past week and is also doing nicely. Laurie's greatest difficulty at the present time is gaining back the 18 pounds she lost through the ordeal. To add to the difficulty, a thoroughly wired jaw permits nothing but liquid or semi-liquid nourishment.

ment of his doctors, which includes physio-therapy for partial paralysis.

John H. Grecoe Jr., 8 Florence st., who suffered multiple injuries in an auto collision on Route 128 in Burlington early Aug. 8, has been released from Woburn Hospital for further recuperation at his home. His condition, while far from well, is encouragingly improved.

Mr. Grecoe, the father of two daughters, Karen and Kim, was presented with his third daughter in Lawrence General Hospital Tuesday morning.

Miss Laurie Smith, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith, 20 Johnson rd., who sustained severe fractures of the jaw, right leg and hip, returned home from Lawrence General Hospital this past week and is also doing nicely. Laurie's greatest difficulty at the present time is gaining back the 18 pounds she lost through the ordeal. To add to the difficulty, a thoroughly wired jaw permits nothing but liquid or semi-liquid nourishment.

Conference Sept. 9 On Housing For The Aged

Housing for the elderly will be discussed at a joint meeting of the Selectmen and the Housing Authority Sept. 9.

The Selectmen invited the Authority to join them in considering the project which, if undertaken, would be almost entirely underwritten by the state.

The meeting will be held in the Selectmen's office at 7:30 p.m.

State officials have explained that housing for the aged may be constructed in a town or city after the proper body - town meeting or city council - has voted to accept a state law on the subject. Other than the land, the municipality pays nothing for the project.

Rents, officials explained, remain under $45 monthly, depending on the older person's income. However, any person over 65 may not rent - only those with incomes of $2500 or less if single or $3000 if married will be considered. Between state subsidization and the income for rentals, the project's cost will be paid, officials continued. And at the end of 40 years, the housing becomes town property.

State officials have also explained that preliminary details of planning and gathering data should be the responsibility of the local Housing Authority, which also should be the official group to ask the town meeting to approve the project.

3 Zoning Variances Allowed By Board

The Appeals Board has recorded four decisions on recent appeals for variances from the zoning laws.

Christ Church was granted permission to convert a single family home at 25 Central st. to two apartments. Of several restrictions, the major one requires that the house exterior not be enlarged except for a doorway to be changed on one side and a window blocked up on another side.

Columbo and Sons Creamery Association was allowed to add a 15x24 structure to the dairy on Argilla rd., to be used for office space.

Allen T. and Norma A. Perry were denied their request to make a two apartment house from a single residence on Ballardvale rd.

The JEM Realty Corp. will be allowed to build a breezeway and garage on Brown st., with the structure coming closer to the lot line than allowed under the building code.

PERSONALS

LEGAL NOTICES

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
LAND COURT
Case No. 25384

TO THE HONORABLE THE JUDGES OF THE LAND COURT FOR THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Respectfully represents WILLIAM H. FOSTER, JUNIOR, of Trumbull, Connecticut, DOROTHY S. MONRO of Manchester, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, and HELEN L. SCOBIE of Chelmsford, Norfolk County, Massachusetts, that they are owners of a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon situate in Andover in the County of Essex and said Commonwealth, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southerly side of Chestnut Street at the center of a brook culvert, which point is the northeasterly corner of the land now formerly of one Basso; thence easterly by the southerly side of said Chestnut Street seventy-one (71) feet to the land now or formerly of GEORGE EDGAR and MARY DAVIS FOLK; thence southerly by said last mentioned land one hundred sixteen feet 3/10 (116.3) feet to iron stake, which point is forty-two (42) feet easterly from the westerly boundary of said land herein described; thence southerly by the land of said GEORGE EDGAR and MARY DAVIS FOLK one hundred ninety-two (192) feet more or less to the center of a brook; thence westerly along the center of said brook thirty-nine (39) feet to a point at the junction of a ditch which runs north and south along the westerly boundary line of the premises herein described; thence turning and running westerly by the center of said ditch and bounded westerly by land of said Basso three hundred thirty-two and 1/2 (332.4) feet to the point of beginning.

That the record title to said lot of land is clouded by a mortgage given by WILLIAM H. FOSTER and MARION FOSTER his wife, to National Loan Corporation, Inc., a Maine Corporation, dated May 13, 1926, and duly recorded with Essex North Registry of Deeds, Book 522, Page 501, purporting to make a note for $3000, payable in or within three years with interest monthly, which mortgage appears to be undischarged, unassigned and unrecorded on and by the record.

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said conditions no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and

That the mortgagors named in said mortgage and those claiming under them have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the conditions thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioners pray that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20 of the Acts of 1924.

Floral Displays At Fair Planned By Clubwomen

High interest is being shown by Andover garden lovers, flower growers and arrangers in the fall flower show at the Topsfield Fair which will colorfully open Sunday, Sept. 1 and continue until Sept. 7.

Outstanding contributors from the Andover Garden Club in the "flower arrangement section" will include Mrs. Charles W. Arnold, Mrs. Edwin Bramley, Mrs. Byron Cleveland, Mrs. Charles Hollis, Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mrs. Leonard Perkins, Mrs. Arthur Steinert, Mrs. Nathaniel Stowers, Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. Ralph Wilkinson and Mrs. Henry Van Zandt.

The theme of the show this year is "Summer Memories" and the six different adult classes have the interesting titles of "Sunday Worship", "Mountain Grandeur", "Quiet Waters", "Down on the Farm", "Fun at the Seashore" and "Till We Meet Again".

The children's section includes classes for the six to eight year olds and nine to 12 year olds, designed to stir their imaginations. One class is entitled "A Nature Walk", which is to be an arrangement or composition using wild flowers and or weeds, alone or in combination with other plant material. "A trip to the Zoo" is to feature an animal, made with fruit and or vegetables.

Well-known to all flower lovers and local audiences is the general chairman of the show, Mrs. Robert G. Richards of Groveland. The Andover committee assisting her includes Mrs. Bramley, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Van Zandt.

Replacement Underway

Six heavy beams, part of the weight-bearing structure under the bleachers at the Playstead, are being replaced this week.

The 24-foot long beams, 3x10 inches, were discovered to be rotten during a pre-school inspection by Stanley Chlebowski, superintendent of the Street and Park Departments. Other beams, equally as large, are still in healthy condition.

It takes three men a whole day to remove one beam and replace it, the superintendent explained.

Alex Henderson inspected the bleachers for the Board of Public Works and suggested that the department make the repairs rather than asking for bids on the job "because no one would bid on that type of job".

Other repair work on the bleachers, in anticipation of the football season, has already been done. Some seats have been repaired and painting has been done.

Beach Party, Supper Planned For Sept. 7

Reservations for a beach party and supper Sept. 7, sponsored by Court St. Monica, Catholic Daughters of America, must be made by next Tuesday with committee members.

The affair will be held at Miss Katherine McNally's summer home at No. Salisbury Beach, starting at 10 a.m. and concluding at 6 p.m. It will serve as a benefit social event for the Marian Visitors.

The committee includes Mrs. Alice Connors, chairman; Miss Jane Barrett, co-chairman; Mrs. Margaret West, Mrs. Nellie Locke, Mrs. Angelina Calcina, Miss McNally and the Misses Mary and Grace McKeon.

Sportsmen Invited To Special Meeting

Grouse hunters will find a special attraction at the open meeting of the Andover Sportsman's Club Sept. 10.

All Greater Lawrence sportsmen have been invited to attend the special session, particularly those interested in hunting grouse. For a special movie called
